

R.W. BECKETT TRAINING

OVERVIEW

R.W. Beckett's one-day service school will be presented by Frank Fitzpatrick. The day has been specifically designed to enhance the knowledge of oil heat servicemen, installers, or related personnel, regardless of background or years of experience. Veterans and beginners find the course logical and easy to follow.

This training program will feature the following:

- Beckett NX Burner
- Aquasmart Limit Control
- Genysis Burner Control

..... along with the regular burner training and set up topics...

The subject matter will be technical in nature, with strong emphasis placed on burner service and troubleshooting system problems. A substantial technical manual will be presented to each attendee.

All materials necessary to successfully complete this training will be provided by the instructor.
